

RIGHT OF BELIEF

“THOSE WE ELECT TO SERVE US IN CIVIL GOVERNMENT MUST RESPECT AND DEFEND OUR RIGHT OF BELIEVE AND FREEDOM OF RELIGION”

Freedom of religion is a fundamental right that has been entrenched in our constitution for generations.

But Justin Trudeau only supports your right to religious freedom if you have the same beliefs as him.

Take for instance his government's decision to refuse funding for religious groups who believe in the right to life.

Justin Trudeau told Christians, Muslims, Jews, Hindus, Sikhs, Buddhists -

He told them all - They won't receive government funding unless they follow the Prime Minister's own religious belief.

That's unacceptable in a free and democratic society.

All Canadians can agree that it's abhorrent for a government to discriminate based on religious grounds.

AS PRIME MINISTER, I WILL INSTRUCT GOVERNMENT BUREAUCRATS TO NEVER BASE A DECISION ON A FUNDING APPLICATION ON YOUR PERSONAL, RELIGIOUS BELIEFS.

Through legislation, I will protect the conscience rights of all health care professionals whose beliefs, religious or otherwise, prevent them from carrying out or referring patients for services that violate their conscience.

The rights of all Canadians must be respected. Rather than dismissing the conscience rights of Canadians, a mature society like Canada should work on solutions to accommodate all rights

And I'll bring back the Office of Religious Freedom that Justin Trudeau closed so that Canada is once again recognized as a global leader in protecting religious minorities, opposing hatred and promoting tolerance.

Together we will take back Canada from Justin Trudeau and ensure that we protect religious rights both here at home and abroad.

Hon. Erin O'Toole, P.C., C.D., M.P.
